PRESIDENT: I would advise you that the adjournment motion takes precedence. But go ahead Senator Fowler, we're still discussing Senator Carpenter's motion. He's trying to dispose of it. Who made the motion to adjourn? Thank you. Senator Wiltse, when you get ready to push it, why just stand up. Senator Fowler, are you calling for adjournment Senator Wiltse? All right, Senator Wiltse is calling for adjournment. That closes debate on the motion here regarding the walls. I want to make an introduction of two guests that we have today. Senator Bill brandt, former Senator Bill Brandt and his wife Rose Marie, and daughter in the north balcony and they have two exchange students, Marcos Carneiro from Sao Paulo, Brazil and Patricia Ponc de Leone from Mardel Plate, Argentina. She's staying at their home. I also want to introduce Mr. Ann Masters and state officers of the Future Business Leaders of America. They are likewise in the north balcony. And we now have a motion to adjourn. Is there any other business to come before the body.

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: All right, then the motion is to adjourn until 900 tomorrow morning. All those in favor of the adjournment vote aye, all those opposed vote no. All right, I didn't know sthere might be controversy. All those in favor of adjournment say aye. All those opposed say no. We are adjourned until 10:00 tomorrow morning.
